

Fill in your details on the registration form and click “Submit”.

The pass is valid for a specified period of time only, after which it will become invalid and access to the site will no longer be granted.

2

Take note of your username and click “Login”. On the login page, enter your password and click “Login” again.

4

You can reprint it by logging on again with the details you received in your welcome email.

Click on the course name to begin.

1

Begin the registration process by clicking here.

3

Upon successful completion of the quiz at the end of the induction, you will receive a pass. This pass must be printed and signed by you and presented to security when entering the site

Then click “First Visit ? Register now”.

Enter the registration code provided by your company contact and click “Submit”.

If you encounter any issues during the orientation, please talk to your DePuy Synthes contact or visit <http://support.eazysafe.com> and open a ticket if required.